PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Attention: Future Customer

When accepted by you in the manner hereinafter indicated, this shall evidence the agreement ("Agreement") between _____ ("Customer") and PETROCOM ENERGY GROUP, LLC. ("PETROCOM"), under the terms of which, and in consideration of the promises made hereunder, the parties agree as follows:

- I. Product: The products ("Products") subject to this Agreement are those products made available to Customer at specific locations designated by PETROCOM.
- II. Terminals: The terminal facilities ("Terminals") subject to this Agreement are those terminals where Petrocom has made available product supply to Customer by issuing loading devices or pin numbers specifically for that customer.
- III. Quantity: Such volumes as are made available to Customer by PETROCOM from time to time at the Terminals and that are loaded by Customer or any of its agents, employees, carriers and contractors.
- IV. Price: Quoted daily via DTN or fax in cents per gallon plus any applicable Federal, State, and Local Taxes.
- V. Payment: Net 10 days from date of shipment or as otherwise agreed.
- VI. Credit: As established by PETROCOM's Credit Department and in accordance with Petrocom's Credit Policy.
- VII. Term: Commences upon execution of this Agreement and can be cancelled upon written notice by either party.
- VIII. Special Provisions:
  - A. Approved customers of PETROCOM are allowed access to said Terminals, whether they are attended or unattended, for the sole purpose of loading petroleum products into transport trucks, by use of keys, cards, pin numbers or other devices authorized by PETROCOM ("loading devices"), and driving trucks away from said Terminal.
  - B. PETROCOM agrees to authorize Customer and any of its designated agents, employees, carriers and contractors to enter the Terminals and to perform all acts thereon necessary in loading petroleum products into transport trucks.
  - C. All other terms and conditions per Petrocom Energy Group LLC General Terms and Conditions for Petroleum Product Purchases/Sales.
- IX. Insurance:

Customer and/or customer's carrier(s) must issue an insurance certificate to Petrocom Energy Group LLC complying with the following requirements:

  - A. Customer's compliance with all applicable state and/or federal laws regarding workers' compensation insurance, employer's liability insurance and occupation disease insurance;
  - B. Comprehensive general liability insurance with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 as to any one occurrence for bodily injury and property damage, said insurance to be endorsed to cover the contractual liability assumed by Customer under this Agreement;

- C. Automotive liability insurance covering each of Customer's vehicles with a limit of not less than $1,000,000 for bodily injury and property damage, including environmental restoration, as to any one accident; and
- D. Umbrella liability in excess of (a), (b), and (c) of $1,000,000.00. Customer further agrees to carry any such higher limits for (b) and (c) above and/or such other types of insurance that might be required by any federal or state law or regulation during the term of the Agreement.

All insurance policies shall name PETROCOM as Additional Insured. All certificates furnished pursuant to the provisions of this section shall reflect that they are for the benefit of PETROCOM and shall provide that there will be no material change in or cancellation of the policies without providing PETROCOM at least thirty (30) days prior written notice. The insurance coverage for which provision is made herein shall be maintained by Customer at its sole expense at all times during the terms of the Agreement. The insurance requirements imposed hereby do not in any way limit Customer's responsibility under any paragraph hereof.

By signing and returning this Agreement; you are confirming your acceptance to the foregoing terms, acknowledging responsibility for the loading devices issued by operators of the Terminals designated by PETROCOM, and agreeing to pay and account for all products withdrawn by anyone using these loading devices. This Purchase Agreement replaces any Purchase Agreement previously signed by Petrocom and Customer.

Very truly yours,

EFT Debits: Customer's designated bank account will be electronically debited ("EFT debit") for the amount due 10 days from lift date ("Settlement Date") or as otherwise agreed. All such EFT debits will be initiated by Petrocom against Customer's bank account in accordance with the Customer's completed authorization form and the timing set forth below. Invoices with due dates which fall on Saturday, Sunday, a Petrocom holiday or a bank holiday will be subject to EFT debit on the next available business day.

EFT Notification and Verification: Two days prior to the EFT Settlement date, an EFT Notification will be sent to each customer via fax, email or DTN which will show the total dollar amount of the EFT debit to the Customer's account, the Settlement Date of the proposed EFT debit and a recap of the individual invoices that comprise the EFT debit amount. Customers have until 9:00 AM Central Standard Time on the day prior to the EFT Settlement Date to contact Petrocom to resolve any potential differences. If contact is not made prior to 9:00 AM Central Standard Time on the day prior to the Settlement Date, Petrocom will assume the EFT debit amount to be correct and will proceed with the EFT debit as stated.

Returned EFT Debits: If an EFT debit is returned by the Customer's bank, regardless of the reason, the Customer's credit line will be rescinded temporarily and shipments to that Customer will cease until the matter of the returned EFT debit is resolved. Remedy for a returned EFT debit is a wire transfer from the Customer for the amount of the EFT debit not honored by the Customer's bank. Reinstatement of the Customer's credit line and EFT privileges will be at Petrocom's discretion.

RACK BUSINESS CREDIT POLICY

Petrocom Energy Group, LLC (Petrocom) reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend credit terms to customers based on its internal assessment of each customer. Credit limits will be evaluated on a periodic basis and are subject to change. Entities that do not qualify for credit terms may establish a secured account at Petrocom's sole discretion.

Customers must agree to Petrocom's EFT Program for automatic account drafting.

A customer's outstanding payable balance should not exceed the credit limit extended by Petrocom. If at any point in time, a customer's outstanding payable balance exceeds its credit limit then Petrocom, at its sole discretion, may ACH draft the customer's account for the overage at the earliest date possible.

If an EFT debit is returned by the Customer's bank, regardless of the reason, the Customer's credit line may be rescinded until the matter of the returned EFT debit is resolved. Remedy for a returned EFT debit is a wire transfer from the Customer for the amount of the EFT debit. Reinstatement of the credit line will be at Petrocom's discretion.

Customers desiring to lift additional product in excess of their available credit limit may do so by 1) requesting early ACH draft, 2) early payment wire transfer, 3) prepayment by wire transfer, or 4) increase of current security.

Secured Accounts:

Minimum secured account is $25,000. This may be adjusted based on market prices.

Cash deposits can be made by immediately available fed funds only. Cash deposits will be held in reserve and customer's account will be drafted according to agreed terms. At termination of the relationship, all balances shall be collected and the deposit will be returned.

Letters of Credit are accepted only in the format approved by Petrocom from a bank acceptable to Petrocom and must be approved in advanced.

Policy Administration:

Please direct any questions that you may have regarding this policy to Mary Perkins, Petrocom Energy Group, LLC, 5151 San Felipe, Suite 1850, Houston, TX 77056. Phone Number: 713-418-3060.

Changes to this Policy are at the sole discretion of Petrocom and may be made without prior notice.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR PETROLEUM PRODUCT PURCHASES/SALES

1. Composition of Agreement: Agreement date, reference number, product, quality, quantity, parties, terms, price, location, period, measurement, payment terms and/or any other terms and conditions will be furnished in writing by telex, facsimile or other means upon finalization of a transaction, if any, under this Agreement and will be referred to by the parties as the "Special Provisions." The Special Provisions shall incorporate by reference these General Terms and Conditions for Petroleum Product Purchases/Sales (the "General Conditions"). The Special Provisions, together with these General Conditions and if applicable, Terminal Loading Agreement/Customer Access Agreement will constitute the agreement between the parties (the "Agreement").

2. Definitions: As used in these General Conditions.

"API" shall mean the American Petroleum Institute.

"API/ASTM Standard" shall mean the API and ASTM standard references as such are in effect as of the date hereof. In the event such standards are revised or modified during the term of this Agreement, the revised or modified standards shall apply after such revisions or modifications have been evaluated and accepted by the parties.

"ASTM" shall mean the American Society for Testing Materials.

"FOB" shall mean Free On Board as described in Incoterms.

"Incoterms" shall mean the 2000 edition of the trade terms published by the International Chamber of Commerce which shall apply to this Agreement to the extent that they do not conflict with the provisions of this Agreement.

"Prime rate" shall mean, as of any date of determination, "the base rate on corporate loans posted by at least 75% of the nation's 30 largest banks" as published by the Wall Street Journal in their daily print edition.

"Product" shall have the definition set forth in the Special Provisions.

3. Payment and Credit Terms: Payment and credit shall be made without discount, deduction, withholding, set-off or counterclaim in United States dollars by wire transfer, electronic funds transfer or check (as per payment term designated on Seller's invoice to Buyer) of immediately available funds on or before the payment due date, as set forth in the Special Provisions, to the bank and account designated by Seller, against presentation to Buyer by Seller of original hard copy of, telecopy or telex invoice together with other documents expressly specified for presentation for payment in the Special Provisions. If the invoice is received after 12:00 p.m. CST, such invoice will be deemed received on the next day.

Seller shall have the right to assess finance charges at the rate of the Prime rate as reported in "The Wall Street Journal" for any month in which a balance is past due hereunder against all past due amounts and all accrued but unpaid finance charges, but not to exceed the maximum finance charges permitted by law. Buyer shall pay all the Seller's costs (including attorneys' fees and court costs) of collecting past due payments.

When payment due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or on a weekday, which is not a banking day in New York then any such payment shall be made on the next following New York banking day. .

If sufficient credit for this transaction is not approved by Seller's Credit Department, Buyer shall either prepay the full amount owed to Seller at least one (1) banking day prior to scheduled delivery date or shall secure payment by the issuance of an irrevocable letter of credit which will be opened in a form and substance and at a first-class bank acceptable to Seller. Any and all applicable taxes must be covered in the irrevocable letter of credit unless Buyer provides Seller with certificate(s) evidencing Buyer's tax-exempt status three (3) days prior to scheduled delivery date. Failure by Buyer to timely make such required prepayment or timely issue the irrevocable letter of credit shall constitute a breach of this Agreement and thereafter Seller shall have the right to cancel this Agreement and/or proceed against Buyer for damages incurred by the Seller due to Buyer's failure to perform.

4. Title and Risk of Loss: Title to, and all risk of loss of or damage to any Product delivered shall pass as follows: when by or into any vessel, at the flange between the vessel's permanent hose connection and the shore line; when into any truck, tank car or pipeline, as the Product enters the receiving equipment, or, if received by a common carrier, when accepted by the carrier for shipment; when into storage (other than from vessels), as the Product enters the tank; and when by book or stock transfer, on the effective date of the transfer. It is expressly understood that the passage of title and risk of loss as set forth above is not conditioned on delivery or receipt of Bills of Lading.

5. Tank Truck/Cars: Quantities delivered into or out of tank trucks/cars shall be based on meters or shore tanks or scales located at or near the delivery point.

The Quantity delivered into transport trucks/tanks will be measured by terminal meter ticket at the terminal adjusted to 60 degrees Fahrenheit. Truck quality shall be presumed to be the quality certified under bulk product from which the truck delivery is drawn.

Seller shall permit Buyer to review and copy relevant meter proving records and witness proving tests as requested.

6. Warranty: The Seller warrants:

- A. that the Product conforms to the specifications set forth in the Special Provisions;
- B. that the Seller has free and clear title to the Product manufactured and delivered under the Agreement; and
- C. that such Product shall be delivered free from lawful security interests, liens, taxes and encumbrances.

THE DELIVERING PARTY MAKES NO OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING THE IMPLIED WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY AND THAT OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE. IN NO EVENT, REGARDLESS OF NEGLIGENCE, SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR PUNITIVE DAMAGES.

All warranties made under the Agreement shall survive acceptance of or payment for the Product by the receiving party.

7. Financial Responsibility: If either party's payments or deliveries to the other party shall be in arrears, or the financial responsibility of either party becomes impaired or unsatisfactory in the opinion of the other party, advance cash payment or satisfactory security shall be given upon demand, and shipments may be withheld until such payment or security is received. If such payment or security is not received within two (2) days from demand therefor, the party demanding such payment or security may terminate this Agreement. In the event either party becomes insolvent, makes an assignment or any general arrangement for the benefit of creditors or if there are instituted by or against either party proceedings in bankruptcy or under any insolvency law or law for reorganization, receivership or dissolution, the other party may withhold shipments or terminate this Agreement, to the extent provided by laws. The exercise by either party of any right reserved under this Section 7 shall be without prejudice to any claim for damages or any other right under this Agreement or applicable law.

The Buyer grants to the Seller and its affiliates the right to set off and to apply any money, accounts payable or Product balance owed by Seller and its affiliates to the Buyer or any collateral of every description held by Seller and its affiliates to secure any indebtedness or obligation owed by Buyer to the Seller and its affiliates against any unpaid money or accounts receivable owed to Seller and its affiliates by Buyer.

8. Liquidation and Close-Out: The parties acknowledge that this Agreement is a forward Agreement as defined in the Bankruptcy Code [11 U.S.C.A. Sec. 101(24)]. If one party (the "defaulting party") shall voluntarily file a petition in bankruptcy, reorganization, or receivership, shall be forced by its creditors into bankruptcy, reorganization, or receivership, shall become insolvent, shall fail to pay its debts as they become due, or shall fail to give adequate assurance or security of its ability to perform its obligations hereunder within forty-eight (48) hours after receipt of a request therefor, the liquidating party shall have the immediate right to liquidate and close out this Agreement and all other forward Agreements (as defined by the Bankruptcy Code) between the parties (regardless of whether the liquidating party is the delivering party or the receiving party thereunder) by calculating the difference in price for the Product hereunder and the prevailing market price for the Product or the commercially reasonable equivalent price for the Product as published in an industry publication multiplied by the remaining quantities of the Product to be delivered hereunder. The liquidation balances shall be netted to a single sum. The defaulting party shall pay the other party in U.S. dollars by wire transfer in immediately available funds within twenty-four (24) hours after receiving the results of the calculation. The liquidation and close-out of this Agreement and all other forward Agreements is in addition to any other rights and remedies which the other party may have.

9. Taxes: Any and all taxes, fees or other charges imposed or assessed by governmental or regulatory bodies, the taxable incident of which is the transfer of title or the delivery of the Product hereunder, or the receipt of payment therefor, regardless of the character, method of calculation or measure of the levy or assessment, shall be paid by the party upon whom the tax, fee or charge is imposed by law, except that Buyer shall reimburse Seller for all federal, state and local taxes, fees or charges which are imposed by law on Seller.

Buyer shall provide to Seller all proper exemption certificates prior to delivery, that it is licensed to engage in tax-free transactions with respect to the Product under all federal or state laws which may apply to this Agreement and the Product delivered hereunder.

Buyer shall (a) upon receipt of Seller's invoice pay or reimburse Seller for any such taxes, fees or charges Seller is required by law to pay or (b) provide Seller upon demand with a valid exemption certificate.

10. Force Majeure: In the event either party is rendered unable, wholly or in part, to perform its obligations under this Agreement (other than to make payments due hereunder) due to acts of God, floods, fires, explosions, extreme heat or cold, earthquake or storm; transportation difficulties, strikes, lockouts or other industrial disturbances; wars, acts of terrorism or sabotage; accident or breakage of equipment or machinery; failure of transporters to furnish transportation, failure of suppliers to furnish supplies; or any law, rules, order or action of any court or instrumentality of the federal or any state government; or for any other cause or causes beyond its reasonable control, it is agreed that on such party's giving notice and full particulars of such force majeure to the other party, the obligations of the party giving such notice shall be suspended from the date of receipt of such notice and for the continuance of any inability so caused, but for no longer period, and such cause shall, so far as possible, be remedied with all reasonable dispatch. The term force majeure shall not apply to those events which merely make it more difficult or costly for Seller or Buyer to perform their obligations hereunder. Buyer and Seller further agree that at the conclusion of any force majeure event, neither Buyer nor Seller shall have any obligation to each other with respect to any quantities of Product not delivered as a consequence of such force majeure event. No condition of force majeure shall operate to extend the terms of this Agreement.

11. Hazard Warning Responsibility: With the other documents required hereunder, the Seller shall provide to the Buyer a Material Safety Data Sheet for each Product delivered hereunder. Buyer acknowledges that there may be hazards associated with the loading, unloading, transporting, handling or use of the Product sold hereunder, which may require that warning be communicated to or other precautionary action taken with all persons handling, coming into contact with, or in any way concerned with the Product sold hereunder. Buyer assumes as to its employees, independent contractors and subsequent purchasers of the Product sold hereunder all responsibility for all such necessary warnings or other precautionary measures relating to hazards to person and property associated with the Product sold hereunder and, furthermore, Buyer shall defend at its own expense, indemnify fully and hold harmless Seller and its parents, subsidiaries and affiliates and its and their agents, officers, directors, employees, representatives, successors and assigns from and against any and all liabilities; losses; damages; demands; claims; penalties; fines; actions; suits; legal, administrative or arbitration proceedings; judgments, orders, directives, injunctions, decrees or awards of any jurisdiction; costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and related costs) arising out of or in any manner related to Buyer's failure to provide necessary warnings or other precautionary measures in connection with the Product sold hereunder as provided above.

12. Limitation of Liability: IN NO EVENT SHALL EITHER PARTY BE LIABLE FOR INCIDENTAL, EXEMPLARY OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES. Seller's liability with respect to the Agreement or any action in connection herewith whether in Agreement, tort or otherwise shall not exceed the price of the Product sold hereunder or the price of that portion of such Product on which liability is asserted. All claims for Product quality or quantity hereunder must be delivered in writing to Seller no later than sixty (60) days after the delivery of the Product to Buyer. Further, any actions to enforce any rights or obligations under this Agreement must be filed in court against the other party no later than one (1) year after the date on which the alleged breach of this Agreement occurred.

13. Indemnity: Seller and Buyer mutually covenant to and shall protect, defend, indemnify and hold each other harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, suits, losses (including without limitation, costs of defense, attorneys' fees, penalties and interest), damages, causes of action and liability of every type and character without regard to amount caused by, arising out of or resulting from the acts or omissions of negligence or wrongdoing of such indemnifying party, its officers, employees or agents with respect to the purchase and sale of Product hereunder.

14. Supplier-Purchaser Provision: The term and volume of any transaction(s) undertaken between the parties hereto are strictly limited to those specified in the Special Provisions hereof, and the parties expressly agree that no supplier/purchaser relationship will be established or is intended to be established hereby. The parties specifically grant to each other express written consent to terminate this Agreement in accordance with the provisions of any supplier/purchaser relationship which may be created pursuant to any mandatory petroleum allocation regulations or other applicable government regulations or statutes. The parties hereby agree to take all steps which may be required to effectuate such termination, including but not limited to the issuance of notice and consents which may be necessary or desirable to effect such termination, and securing the consent of subsequent purchasers.

If all three of the following conditions exist:

- a. if an industry-wide curtailment, shortage or cessation of supply of the Products exists;
- b. if seller has a curtailment, shortage or cessation in its existing or contemplated availability of the Product to be sold hereunder or in the raw materials used to manufacture the Product, irrespective of the cause or foreseeability of such curtailment, shortage or cessation; and c. if Seller's inability to comply with any or all of its obligations to Buyer and others to whom it then has historical relationships;
- c. if Seller's inability to comply with any or all of its obligations to Buyer and others to whom it then has historical relationships;

Seller at its sole discretion but in a fair and commercially reasonable manner may withhold, suspend or reduce sales and deliveries to Buyer and others and shall not be required to make good any shortages resulting therefrom. Seller shall not be obligated to purchase Products in the open or spot market to supplement Seller's existing or contemplated availability of the Product in order to invoke this paragraph.

15. Waiver: No waiver by either party of any breach by the other party of any of the covenants or conditions of this Agreement shall be construed as a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same or any other covenants or conditions contained herein.

16. Assignment: Neither party shall assign this Agreement without the written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

17. Entirety of Agreement: The Special Provisions, these General Conditions, and if applicable, Marine Provisions and Terminal Loading Agreement contain the entire agreement of the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement; there are no other promises, representations or warranties. Any modification of this Agreement shall be by written instrument. Any conflict between the Special Provisions and these General Conditions shall be resolved in favor of the Special Provisions. The paragraph headings are for convenience only and shall not limit or change the subject matter of this Agreement.

18. Compliance with Laws: During the performance of this Agreement, each party agrees to comply with all laws, rules, regulations, ordinances and requirements of federal, state and local governmental or regulatory bodies including, without limitation, all licensing requirements in the state where title transfers (if such licensing is required by the state) which are applicable to this Agreement.

19. Choice of Law and Jurisdiction: ANY CONTROVERSY, CAUSE OF ACTION, DISPUTE OR CLAIM (COLLECTIVELY REFERRED TO AS "CLAIMS") ARISING OUT OF, RELATING TO OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, OR THE BREACH, TERMINATION OR VALIDITY THEREOF, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE SUBSTANTIVE AND PROCEDURAL LAWS (EXCLUDING ANY CONFLICT-OF-LAWS, RULES OR PRINCIPLES WHICH MAY REFER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS TO THE LAWS OF ANOTHER JURISDICTION) OF THE STATE OF TEXAS SHALL APPLY. THE PARTIES SPECIFICALLY AGREE THAT THE SOLE JURISDICTION FOR ANY CLAIMS SHALL BE IN STATE OR FEDERAL COURTS LOCATED IN HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS.

Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification

Give form to the requester. Do not send to the IRS.

Print or type See Specific Instructions on page 2	Name (as shown on your income tax return)
	Business name, if different from above
	Check appropriate box: <input type="checkbox"/> Individual/Sole proprietor <input type="checkbox"/> Corporation <input type="checkbox"/> Partnership <input type="checkbox"/> Other ▶ .....
	<input type="checkbox"/> Exempt from backup withholding
	Address (number, street, and apt. or suite no.)	Requester's name and address (optional)
	City, state, and ZIP code
List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Social security number

OR

Employer identification number

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. person (including a U.S. resident alien).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity,

- The U.S. grantor or other owner of a grantor trust and not the trust, and
- The U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust) and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 (see Publication 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien.

Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a "saving clause." Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the recipient has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items:

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if his or her stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on his or her scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity not subject to backup withholding, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8.

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 28% of such payments (after December 31, 2002). This is called "backup withholding." Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester,
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the Part II instructions on page 4 for details),

3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN,

4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only), or

5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding under 4 above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See the instructions below and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9.

Also see Special rules regarding partnerships on page 1.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Name

If you are an individual, you must generally enter the name shown on your income tax return. However, if you have changed your last name, for instance, due to marriage without informing the Social Security Administration of the name change, enter your first name, the last name shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

If the account is in joint names, list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of the form.

Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your income tax return on the "Name" line. You may enter your business, trade, or "doing business as (DBA)" name on the "Business name" line.

Limited liability company (LLC). If you are a single-member LLC (including a foreign LLC with a domestic owner) that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner under Treasury regulations section 301.7701-3, enter the owner's name on the "Name" line. Enter the LLC's name on the "Business name" line. Check the appropriate box for your filing status (sole proprietor, corporation, etc.), then check the box for "Other" and enter "LLC" in the space provided.

Other entities. Enter your business name as shown on required federal tax documents on the "Name" line. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. You may enter any business, trade, or DBA name on the "Business name" line.

Note. You are requested to check the appropriate box for your status (individual/sole proprietor, corporation, etc.).

Exempt From Backup Withholding

If you are exempt, enter your name as described above and check the appropriate box for your status, then check the "Exempt from backup withholding" box in the line following the business name, sign and date the form.

Generally, individuals (including sole proprietors) are not exempt from backup withholding. Corporations are exempt from backup withholding for certain payments, such as interest and dividends.

Note. If you are exempt from backup withholding, you should still complete this form to avoid possible erroneous backup withholding.

Exempt payees. Backup withholding is not required on any payments made to the following payees:

1. An organization exempt from tax under section 501(a), any IRA, or a custodial account under section 403(b)(7) if the account satisfies the requirements of section 401(f)(2),
  2. The United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities,
  3. A state, the District of Columbia, a possession of the United States, or any of their political subdivisions or instrumentalities,
  4. A foreign government or any of its political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities, or
  5. An international organization or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.
- Other payees that may be exempt from backup withholding include:
6. A corporation,
  7. A foreign central bank of issue,
  8. A dealer in securities or commodities required to register in the United States, the District of Columbia, or a possession of the United States,
  9. A futures commission merchant registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission,
  10. A real estate investment trust,
  11. An entity registered at all times during the tax year under the Investment Company Act of 1940,
  12. A common trust fund operated by a bank under section 584(a),
  13. A financial institution,
  14. A middleman known in the investment community as a nominee or custodian, or
  15. A trust exempt from tax under section 664 or described in section 4947.

The chart below shows types of payments that may be exempt from backup withholding. The chart applies to the exempt recipients listed above, 1 through 15.

IF the payment is for . . .	THEN the payment is exempt for . . .
Interest and dividend payments	All exempt recipients except for 9
Broker transactions	Exempt recipients 1 through 13. Also, a person registered under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 who regularly acts as a broker
Barter exchange transactions and patronage dividends	Exempt recipients 1 through 5
Payments over $600 required to be reported and direct sales over $5,000 <sup>1</sup>	Generally, exempt recipients 1 through 7 <sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> However, the following payments made to a corporation (including gross proceeds paid to an attorney under section 6045(f), even if the attorney is a corporation) and reportable on Form 1099-MISC are not exempt from backup withholding: medical and health care payments, attorneys' fees; and payments for services paid by a federal executive agency.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have and are not eligible to get an SSN, your TIN is your IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). Enter it in the social security number box. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN. However, the IRS prefers that you use your SSN.

If you are a single-owner LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (see Limited liability company (LLC) on page 2), enter your SSN (or EIN, if you have one). If the LLC is a corporation, partnership, etc., enter the entity's EIN.

Note. See the chart on page 4 for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local Social Security Administration office or get this form online at www.socialsecurity.gov. You may also get this form by calling 1-800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/businesses and clicking on Employer ID Numbers under Related Topics. You can get Forms W-7 and SS-4 from the IRS by visiting www.irs.gov or by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, write "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, generally you will have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note. Writing "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon.

Caution: A disregarded domestic entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if items 1, 4, and 5 below indicate otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). Exempt recipients, see Exempt From Backup Withholding on page 2.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

What Name and Number To Give the Requester

For this type of account:	Give name and SSN of:
1. Individual	The individual
2. Two or more individuals (joint account)	The actual owner of the account or, if combined funds, the first individual on the account <sup>1</sup>
3. Custodian account of a minor (Uniform Gift to Minors Act)	The minor <sup>2</sup>
4. a. The usual revocable savings trust (grantor is also trustee)	The grantor-trustee <sup>1</sup>
b. So-called trust account that is not a legal or valid trust under state law	The actual owner <sup>1</sup>
5. Sole proprietorship or single-owner LLC	The owner <sup>3</sup>
For this type of account:	Give name and EIN of:
6. Sole proprietorship or single-owner LLC	The owner <sup>3</sup>
7. A valid trust, estate, or pension trust	Legal entity <sup>4</sup>
8. Corporate or LLC electing corporate status on Form 8832	The corporation
9. Association, club, religious, charitable, educational, or other tax-exempt organization	The organization
10. Partnership or multi-member LLC	The partnership
11. A broker or registered nominee	The broker or nominee
12. Account with the Department of Agriculture in the name of a public entity (such as a state or local government, school district, or prison) that receives agricultural program payments	The public entity

<sup>1</sup>List first and circle the name of the person whose number you furnish. If only one person on a joint account has an SSN, that person's number must be furnished.

<sup>3</sup>You must show your individual name and you may also enter your business or "DBA" name on the second name line. You may use either your SSN or EIN (if you have one). If you are a sole proprietor, IRS encourages you to use your SSN.

<sup>4</sup>List first and circle the name of the legal trust, estate, or pension trust. (Do not furnish the TIN of the personal representative or trustee unless the legal entity itself is not designated in the account title.) Also see Special rules regarding partnerships on page 1.

Note. If no name is circled when more than one name is listed, the number will be considered to be that of the first name listed.

Privacy Act Notice

Section 6109 of the Internal Revenue Code requires you to provide your correct TIN to persons who must file information returns with the IRS to report interest, dividends, and certain other income paid to you, mortgage interest you paid, the acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA, or Archer MSA or HSA. The IRS uses the numbers for identification purposes and to help verify the accuracy of your tax return. The IRS may also provide this information to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. possessions to carry out their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Payers must generally withhold 28% of taxable interest, dividend, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to a payer. Certain penalties may also apply.

INSTRUCTIONS REGARDING UNIFORM SALES & USE TAX CERTIFICATE

To Seller's Customers:

In order to comply with the majority of state and local sales tax law requirements, the seller must have in its files a properly executed exemption certificate from all of its customers who claim a sales tax exemption. If the seller does not have this certificate, it is obliged to collect the tax for the state in which the property or service is delivered.

If the buyer is entitled to sales tax exemption, the buyer should complete the certificate and send it to the seller at its earliest convenience. If the buyer purchases tax free for a reason for which this form does not provide, the buyer should send the seller its special certificate or statement.

Caution to Seller:

In order for the certificate to be accepted in good faith by the seller, seller must exercise care that the property or service being sold is of a type normally sold wholesale, resold, leased, rented or incorporated as a ingredient or component part of a product manufactured by buyer and then resold in the usual course of its business. A seller failing to exercise due care could be held liable for the sales tax due in some states or cities. Misuse of this certificate by seller, lessee, or the representative thereof may be punishable by fine, imprisonment or loss of right to issue certificate in some states or cities.

Notes:

1. Alabama: Each retailer shall be responsible for determining the validity of a purchaser's claim for exemption.
2. Arizona: This certificate may be used only when making purchases of tangible personal property for resale in the ordinary course of business, and not for any other statutory deduction or exemption. It is valid as a resale certificate only if it contains the purchaser's name, address, signature, and Arizona transaction privilege tax (or other state sales tax) license number, as required by Arizona Revised Statutes § 42-5022, Burden of proving sales not at retail.
3. California:
  - A. This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of Title 18, California Code of Regulations, Section 1668 (Sales and Use Tax Regulation 1668, Resale Certificate).
  - B. By use of this certificate, the purchaser certifies that the property is purchased for resale in the regular course of business in the form of tangible personal property, which includes property incorporated as an ingredient or component part of an item manufactured for resale in the regular course of business.
  - C. When the applicable tax would be sales tax, it is the seller who owes that tax unless the seller takes a timely and valid resale certificate in good faith.
  - D. A valid resale certificate is effective until the issuer revokes the certificate.
4. The state of Colorado, Hawaii, Illinois, and New Mexico do not permit the use of this certificate to claim a resale exemption for the purchase of a taxable service for resale.
5. Connecticut: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to Conn. Gen. State §§12-410(5) and 12-411(14) and an regulations and administrative pronouncements pertaining to resale certificates.
6. District of Columbia: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. It is not valid as a resale certificate unless it contains the purchaser's D.C. sales and use tax registration number.
7. Florida: The Department will allow purchasers to use the Multistate Tax Commission's Uniform Sales and Use Tax Certificate-Multijurisdiction. However, the use of this uniform certificate must be used in conjunction with the telephonic or electronic authorization number method described in paragraph (3)(b) or (c) of rule SUT FAC 12A-1.039..
8. Georgia: the purchaser's state of registration number will be accepted in lieu of Georgia's registration number when the purchaser is located outside Georgia, does not have nexus with Georgia, and the tangible personal property is delivered by drop shipment to the purchaser's customer located in Georgia.
9. Hawaii allows this certificate to be used by the seller to claim a lower general excise tax rate or no general excise tax, rather than the buyer claiming an exemption. The no tax situation occurs when the purchaser of imported goods certifies to the seller, who originally imported the goods into Hawaii, that the purchaser will resell the imported goods at wholesale. If the lower rate or no tax does not in fact apply to the sale, the purchaser is liable to pay the seller the additional tax imposed. See Hawaii Dept. of Taxation Tax Information Release No. 93-5, November 10, 1993, and Tax Information Release No. 98-8, October 30, 1998.

10. Use of this certificate in Illinois is subject to the provisions of 86 Ill. Adm. Code Ch.I, Sec. 130.1405. Illinois does not have an exemption on sales of property for subsequent lease or rental, nor does the use of this certificate for claiming resale purchases of services have any application in Illinois.

The registration number to be supplied next to Illinois on page 1 of this certificate must be the Illinois registration or resale number; no other state's registration number is acceptable.

"Good faith" is not the standard of care to be exercised by a retailer in Illinois. A retailer in Illinois is not required to determine if the purchaser actually intends to resell the item. Instead, a retailer must confirm that the purchaser has a valid registration or resale number at the time of purchase. If a purchaser fails to provide a certificate of resale at the time of sale in Illinois, the seller must charge the purchaser tax.

While there is no statutory requirement that blanket certificates of resale be renewed at certain intervals, blanket certificates should be updated periodically, and no less frequently than every three years.

11. Kentucky: 1. Kentucky does not permit the use of this certificate to claim a resale exclusion for the purchase of a taxable service.
2. This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. Its use is limited to use as a resale certificate subject to the provisions of Kentucky Revised Statute 139.270 (Good Faith).
3. The use of this certificate by the purchaser constitutes the issuance of a blanket certificate in accordance with Kentucky Administrative Regulation 103 KAR 31:111.
12. Maine does not have an exemption on sales of property for subsequent lease or rental.
13. Maryland: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. However, vendors may accept resale certificates that bear the exemption number issued to a religious organization. Exemption certifications issued to religious organizations consist of 8 digits, the first two of which are always "29". Maryland registration, exemption and direct pay numbers may be verified on the website of the Comptroller of the Treasury at www.marylandtaxes.com.
14. Michigan: Effective for a period of four years unless a lesser period is mutually agreed to and stated on this certificate. Covers all exempt transfers when accepted by the seller in "good faith" as defined by Michigan statute.
15. Minnesota: A. Does not allow a resale certificate for purchases of taxable services for resale in most situations.
B. Allows an exemption for items used only once during production and not used again.
16. Missouri: A. Purchases who improperly purchase property or services sales tax free using this certificate may be required to pay the tax, interest, additions to tax or penalty.
B. Even if property is delivered outside Missouri, facts and circumstances may subject it to Missouri tax, contrary to the second sentence of the first paragraph of the above instructions.
17. Nebraska: A blanket certificate is valid 3 years from the date of issuance.
18. New Mexico: For transactions occurring on or after July 1, 1998, New Mexico will accept this certificate in lieu of a New Mexico nontaxable transaction certificate and as evidence of the deductibility of a sale tangible personal property provided:
a) this certificate was not issued by the State of New Mexico;
b) the buyer is not required to be registered in New Mexico; and
c) the buyer is purchasing tangible personal property for resale or incorporations as an ingredient or component part into a manufactured product.
19. North Carolina: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate or if signed by a person such as a contractor who intends to use the property. Its use is subject to G.S. 105-164.28 and any administrative rules or directives pertaining to resale certificates.
20. Ohio: A. The buyer must specify which one of the reasons for exemption on the certificate applies. This may be done by circling or underlining the appropriate reason or writing it on the form above the state registration section. Failure to specify the exemption reason will, on audit, result in disallowance of the certificate.

B. In order to be valid, the buyer must sign and deliver the certificate to the seller before or during the period for filing the return.

21. Oklahoma would allow this certificate in lieu of a copy of the purchaser's sales tax permit as one of the elements of "properly completed documents" which is one of the three requirements which must be met prior to the vendor being relieved of liability. The other two requirements are that the vendor must have the certificate in his possession at the time the sale is made and must accept the documentation in good faith. The specific documentation required under OAC 710-65-7-6 is:

- A) Sales tax permit information may consist of:
  - (i) A copy of the purchaser's sales tax permit; or
  - (ii) In lieu of a copy of the permit, obtain the following:
    - (I) Sales tax permit number; and
    - (II) The name and address of the purchaser;
- B) A statement that the purchaser is engaged in the business of reselling the articles purchased;
- C) A statement that the articles purchased are purchased for resale;
- D) The signature of the purchaser or a person authorized to legally bind the purchaser; and
- E) Certification on the face of the invoice, bill or sales slip or on separate letter that said purchaser is engaged in reselling the articles purchased.

Absent strict compliance with these requirements, Oklahoma holds a seller liable for sales tax due on sales where the claimed exemption is found to be invalid, for whatever reason, unless the Tax Commission determines that purchaser should be pursued for collection of the tax resulting from improper presentation of a certificate.

22. Pennsylvania: This certificate is not valid as an exemption certificate. It is valid as a resale certificate only if it contains the purchaser's Pennsylvania Sales and Use Tax eight-digit license number, subject to the provisions of 61 PA Code §32.3.
23. Rhode Island allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption only when the item will be resold in the same form. They do not permit this certificate to be used to claim any other type of exemption.
24. South Dakota: Services which are purchased by a service provider and delivered to a current customer in conjunction with the services contracted to be provided to the customer are claimed to be for resale. Receipts from the sale of a service for resale by the purchaser are not subject to sales tax if the purchaser furnishes a resale certificate which the seller accepts in good faith. In order for the transaction to be a sale for resale, the following conditions must be present:
- (1) The service is purchased for or on behalf of a current customer;
  - (2) The purchaser of the service does not use the service in any manner; and
  - (3) The service is delivered or resold to the customer without any alteration or change.
25. Texas: Items purchased for resale must be for resale within the geographical limits of the United States, its territories and possessions.
26. Washington: A. Blanket resale certificates must be renewed at intervals not to exceed four years;
B. This certificate may be used to document exempt sales of "chemicals to be used in processing an article to be produced for sale."
C. Buyer acknowledges that the misuse of the tax due, in addition to the tax, interest, and any other penalties imposed by law.
27. Wisconsin allows this certificate to be used to claim a resale exemption only. It does not permit this certificate to be used to claim any other type of exemption.
